More than 50 dogs released for adoption beginning Nov. 21

More than 50 dogs seized by San Bernardino County Animal Care and Control from two properties in the Morongo Basin will be given the chance to find loving homes. The animals will be made available for adoption to the general public or to San Bernardino County approved rescue group partners on Monday Nov. 21 at 10 a.m.

The dogs are part of an investigation of animal neglect. Fifty-five dogs were seized from properties in Joshua Tree and Landers on November 2 by San Bernardino County Animal Care and Control. The case is still under investigation, but the dogs are scheduled to be available beginning on Monday.

“There are Labradoodles, golden retrievers, terriers, and many more in need of a forever and loving home,” said Devore Animal Shelter manager Nishalet Wilson.

For more information, please contact the Devore Animal Shelter at (909) 386-9820. The Devore Animal Shelter is located 19777 Shelter Way in San Bernardino.
