Free “Chip or Treat” Microchip and Vaccination Services Events

Six animal shelters serving San Bernardino County are encouraging dog owners to participate in the “Chip or Treat” event where free microchips, rabies vaccinations and 5-in-1 vaccinations will be available for licensed dogs or for dogs whose owners agree to license their pets at the clinics.

Following is a schedule of participating animal shelters and agencies

Wednesday, Oct. 9:

- Hesperia Animal Shelter, 11011 Santa Fe Ave., Hesperia, 5 – 7 p.m., (760) 947-1700
- Redlands Animal Shelter, 504 Kansas St., Redlands, 5 – 7 p.m., (909) 798-7644
- Rancho Cucamonga Animal Services, 11780 Arrow Rte., Rancho Cucamonga, 6 – 8 p.m., (909) 466-7387

Saturday, Oct. 12:

- Devore Animal Shelter, 19777 Shelter Way, San Bernardino, 8 – 10 a.m., (909) 386-9820
- Inland Valley Humane Society & S.P.C.A., 500 Humane Way, Pomona, 9 – 10 a.m., (909) 623-9777

Sunday, Oct. 13

- Upland Animal Shelter, 1275 San Bernardino Road, Upland, call for times and restrictions, (909) 931-4185

“Chip or Treat” is a collaborative effort of all participating agencies to encourage pet owners to microchip, vaccinate and license their dogs in San Bernardino County, home to over 2.1 million people and their pets. As an ongoing effort to promote animal health and wellness for community pets, we welcome you to “Chip or Treat” at one of the sponsored clinics this October.

Please contact the listed agency that serves your area to obtain further information about their event.
